

MICHAEL GROSE TO SPEAK AT ST THOMAS THE APOSTLE

We are excited to announce that Michael Grose will be at St Thomas on the evening of Tuesday 24th October, 2017 to present what he describes as a 'parenting masterclass'.

Michael is well known as the author of many of the parenting*ideas articles that feature in our newsletter, and also as the founder of the parenting*ideas website. You may also know him from his regular appearances in the media in programs such as The Project, The Today Show and ABC Radio.

As a speaker he is highly credentialed and has been inducted into the PSA Speaker Hall of Fame and also a past winner of the PSA Australian Educator of the Year award. Michael has also published a number of books, his most recent being 'Spoonfed Generation – How to raise independent children' which will be the subject of his presentation. Please see the flyer attached to this newsletter for more information.

In order to make this presentation accessible to as many people as possible, we have kept the cost to a minimum, just $10 per family. Included in this fees are light refreshments, one or two reserved seats per family for the presentation and free reserved child minding for primary-school aged children in our library area. Unfortunately, we are unable to cater for children under five years of age.

This event is also being promoted to parents of other Catholic schools in the Tuggeranong Valley, so please get in early, as places in the child minding facility and for the presentation in the hall are limited.

In order to reserve your places, please complete the ticket request attached to the newsletter and email it to office.sttapkambah@cg.catholic.edu.au or send it in with your child to school.

Tickets will be sent home closer to the date.
